

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Based in Vancouver, British Columbia, the Arts Club Theatre Company is the largest, year-round non-commercial professional theatre company operating in Canada. The Arts Club produces classic and contemporary international theatre on three stages in Vancouver and across British Columbia through its annual touring season. The Arts Club is a national leader in new Canadian play development.

In response to the retirement announcement by Artistic Managing Director Bill Millerd, the Arts Club is seeking an experienced and visionary theatre artist to join the company as Artistic Director. The Artistic Director will create and execute a vision that engages, challenges, and inspires diverse audiences. He/she is responsible for artistic programming, hiring directors, casting, and technical operations. In addition, the Artistic Director supports the administrative operations of the Company.

The successful candidate is a passionate and collaborative theatre artist with experience setting and executing the artistic direction of a not-for-profit professional theatre company. He/she has progressive leadership experience, and experience as an Artistic Director within a mid-size or large regional theatre environment in Canada.

Alexander Whitehead Executive Search is leading the campaign to identify the next Artistic Director of the Arts Club. For more information, email: ArtsClubAD@alexanderwhitehead.com. Deadline for applications is March 31, 2017.
